

Sigma Kappa Foundation Scholarship season is here! The call for applications began on December 1st and will close on February 10, 2021. Last year, we awarded more than $114,000 in scholarships to 83 sisters. We are expecting a large number of applications again this year and want to make sure we have a significant pool of evaluators available to read and evaluate.

The window for application review will be approximately February 12, 2021 through midnight on March 10, 2021. The number of applications that each evaluator will review depends on the number of completed applications we receive and the number of sisters who have agreed to evaluate. Each application is read by three evaluators. Last year we were able to keep the number of applications for each evaluator to around 20-25. The application includes many open-ended questions, a professional recommendation and also an essay so evaluators are able to get to know the applicants. To aid in the evaluation process, there will be training sessions in late January/early February to review the application and scoring rubric. The sessions will be approximately 30 minutes in length.

If you are available during this timeframe and have interest in volunteering as an evaluator, please email Marsha Traub at FoundationTrustee1@sigmakappa.org by January 18.
