Sigma Kappa Mourns the Loss of Theta Omicron Chapter Member

CARMEL, INDIANA – It is with great sadness that Sigma Kappa shares the passing of Keira Dillon, a collegiate member of the Theta Omicron Chapter at Arizona State University. Keira, a 19-year-old biomedical sciences major, passed away on Feb. 26.

Keira’s goal was to become a pediatric surgeon. She loved to travel, especially to Lahaina, Maui, with her family, going to the beach, dressing up, shopping, cheer, and children, especially all of her second cousins.

According to the Theta Omicron Chapter, “Keira Dillon was a daughter, best friend, and beloved sister. We will miss her every day. Rest easy our angel.”

National President Ann O’Connell Adams, Theta, shared, “Sigma Kappa is extremely saddened by the news of Keira’s sudden passing. We mourn Keira along with the members of the Theta Omicron Chapter, her family, friends and loved ones. She was a valued member of Sigma Kappa and will be dearly missed.”

Letters of condolences can be sent to: Sigma Kappa Sorority, Theta Omicron Chapter, 975 S. Rural Rd., Tempe, AZ 85281.
