Sigma Kappa Mourns the Loss of Culver-Stockton College Chapter Member

CARMEL, INDIANA – It is with a heavy heart Sigma Kappa shares the passing of Hannah Welling, a collegiate member of the Beta Mu Chapter at Culver-Stockton College. Hannah, a sophomore psychology major from Alton, Illinois, passed away on August 11 due to complications from leukemia.

Sigma Kappa sends its deepest condolences to Hannah's family. Our members join the sisters of Beta Mu Chapter and the Culver-Stockton College community in mourning the loss of a dear sister and friend.

According to her obituary, "Hannah loved to be with her family and friends. She made new friends wherever she went with her amazing smile and caring personality. She will be deeply missed by all who were blessed to know and love her."

National President Sara Chacon, Gamma Alpha, commented, "Sigma Kappa is extremely saddened by the news of Hannah's passing. We hope that the strength she showed during her illness helps her sisters, friends and family get through this difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with Hannah's family and all those who knew her."

Letters of condolences can be sent to: Sigma Kappa Sorority, Beta Mu Chapter, 1 College Hall, Canton, MO 63435-1257.
