Sigma Kappa Celebrates Long-Time National Panhellenic Conference Volunteers and Announces New Delegation

Sigma Kappa has been extremely fortunate to have had both Donna King, Epsilon Rho, and Jan Behm, Gamma Mu, serve on the delegation as representatives to the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) for more than 20 years. Donna's leadership as the Chairman of the National Panhellenic Conference from 2015-2017 is greatly appreciated and valued. The Conference benefited from Donna's tenacity and commitment to this important position in the fraternity and sorority community.

Effective June 15, Donna and Jan concluded their service to Sigma Kappa as NPC delegates. Donna and Jan shared, "We are appreciative for the rich experience and friendships forged through our work with the National Panhellenic Conference, and the opportunity to represent Sigma Kappa for over two decades. Thank you for your support throughout this time."

National President Sara Seely Chacon, Gamma Alpha, expressed her deep gratitude to Donna and Jan for their service to Sigma Kappa and the National Panhellenic Conference. "Donna and Jan have given countless hours to support Sigma Kappa and the National Panhellenic Conference. It has been a privilege to serve with them both. They are respected and valued women who have inspired many with their passion and dedication to advancing the sorority experience. I am especially grateful to Donna, who confidently represented Sigma Kappa with courage and conviction as the 2015-2017 NPC Chairman."

Sigma Kappa's commitment to providing exceptional Panhellenic support will continue with the announcement of the 2018-2019 NPC delegation. Sigma Kappa's national council is proud to announce the appointment of Jennifer Hohman, Delta Iota, as the new NPC delegate. "We are grateful for Jen's service to the Conference and know that she will continue Sigma Kappa's outstanding representation," stated Sara Chacon. Additionally, the following members have been chosen to serve as alternate delegates for the 2018-2019 year:

- Lisa Holliday, Mu – NPC Alternate Delegate
- Megan Hessee, Zeta Pi – NPC Alternate Delegate

Who we are *Sigma Kappa Sorority, founded in 1874, is a national not-for-profit organization of more than 172,000 women dedicated to excellence in academics, personal character, and service to society.
