Sigma Kappa Mourns the Loss of Oregon State University Chapter Member

CARMEL, INDIANA – It is with a heavy heart Sigma Kappa shares the passing of Emily Reedy, a collegiate member of the Upsilon Chapter at Oregon State University. Emily, a freshman graphic design major from Lyons, Oregon, passed away on January 15 in a car accident.

Sigma Kappa sends its deepest condolences to Emily's family. Our members join the sisters of Upsilon Chapter and the Oregon State University community in mourning the loss of a dear sister and friend.

According to some of her closest friends, "Emily was like a ray of sunshine, constantly brightening everyone's days. Her smile was contagious and she was fiercely loyal. She always knew how to bring a little sparkle into everyone's lives."

National President Sara Chacon, Gamma Alpha, commented, "Our thoughts and prayers are with Emily's family and all those that knew her during this difficult time. Losing a sister is hard regardless of the circumstances, but having it be so unexpected with someone so young makes her loss unimaginable. Sigma Kappa is extremely saddened by the news of Emily's passing."

Letters of condolences can be sent to: Sigma Kappa Sorority, Upsilon Chapter, 231 NW 26th St, Corvallis, OR 97330-5340
