

OUR PLAN TO

As Sigma Kappas, we strive to live with heart. Now, more than ever, we must face our daily lives with bravery and strength. As Mary Low Carver shared many years ago, we are called into action as never before:

“Carry on the light, the little torch we were privileged to kindle so long ago, bravely let it shine, failing not, nor fading in all the years to come. So shall it shine – a splendor through the years.”

We repeatedly hear you, our members, say that friendships and belonging are most important to you. In this time of uncertainty, we are committed to focusing on what you want from Sigma Kappa. The recent challenges we are facing have caused us to think differently about how we can best support our alumnae, collegians, and volunteers. We are taking this time to Pivot our membership experience to meet you where you are and provide the resources and connections you need now.

While considering the immediate needs and lasting impacts for Sigma Kappa, we have developed a four-phase approach to Pivot our membership experience. In the coming weeks and months, we will roll out new experiences in the following areas:

Next week, you will receive a message from us targeting three audiences: alumnae, collegians and volunteers. This communication will be organized through our values - friendship, loyalty, personal growth and service - called into action. We hope this pivoted approach will connect us during this time of social distancing, lead us to new heights, inspire us to reimagine and allow us to continue to give to the organization that has shaped us.

Sisters, remember that choosing to live with heart makes us more compassionate individuals. We are a beacon of sisterhood and support for one another. We are in this together.
